

An Update on AML Issues for Financial Institutions

Law Society CPD Points will be applied for

Introduction:

There has been increased scrutiny of anti-money laundering/counter terrorist financing controls, especially in international financial centres. The IMDB case in Singapore is a recent example. In Hong Kong, non-compliance with the customer due diligence and on-going monitoring requirements in the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorist Financing (Financial Institutions) Ordinance (AMLO) is potentially a criminal offence and hence financial institutions justifiably remain cautious.

Jill Wong, the Regulatory Partner at Howse Williams Bowers regularly advises financial institutions and professionals on AML/CTF matters. In this seminar, Jill will examine the issues with AMLO, provide updates on the latest cases, as well as some practical tips for effective AML/CTF controls and preventive measures.

Highlights:

The speaker, Ms Jill Wong will cover:

- an overview of AML/CTF laws in Hong Kong
- the key provisions of AMLO
- the latest enforcement cases under the AMLO
- an individual's liability under AMLO
- the latest regulatory guidance on specific topics such as tax evasion, transaction monitoring, etc
- practical suggestions and tips

Target audience:

- Banks, brokers, financial advisers, asset managers, money service operators and insurers
- Senior management, in-house counsel, compliance and AML officers
- Directors, corporate secretaries, accountants and trustees

Speaker Profile:

Jill Wong
Partner, Howse Williams Bowers

Jill specialises in financial services and corporate regulatory and compliance issues, and has been identified as a leading lawyer in legal directories such as Chambers Asia Pacific, IFLR 1000, AsiaLaw Leading Lawyers and Legal 500. She is named as an External Counsel of the Year in Asian-Mena's annual "Representing Corporate Asia and Middle East Survey 2013".

She was previously Deputy General Counsel at the Hong Kong Monetary Authority and was in-house counsel at Credit Suisse. In addition, Jill has also worked in leading international law firms in Hong Kong.

Jill's experience compasses all aspects of banking and securities laws and rules affecting listed companies. She is also active in new areas of regulatory scrutiny such as money-laundering, privacy, retail payment systems and competition. She advises on both on contentious and non-contentious issues, and often in both capacities for the same clients; making Howse Williams Bowers' regulatory practice unique in its ability to advise clients from all perspectives.

She has hands-on practical experience in liaising with regulators, advising on regulatory compliance and implementing changes to internal practices, conducting internal investigations and advising on corporate governance. Jill has represented clients, both institutions and individuals, in numerous regulatory investigations and disciplinary inquiries.

Jill is active in publishing books and articles, her most current project being the 2nd edition of the Commentary and Annotations of the Securities and Futures Ordinance, published by Thomson Reuters. She is active in the financial services industry in several capacities, participating in the Editorial Board of Hong Kong Practical Guidance (published by LexisNexis) and serving on the HKICPA Disciplinary Panel and the British Chamber of Commerce Financial Markets Committee.
