

Zhongke Health International (Hong Kong) Co Ltd now offers members health check service free by means of the Quantum Weak Magnetic Resonance Analyzer(量子弱磁場共振分析儀). According to the Company, Quantum Weak Magnetic Resonance Analyzer collects the frequency and energy of the human body's weak magnetic field by holding the sensor. After amplified by the instrument and processed by the computer, it is compared with the standard quantum resonance spectrum of diseases and nutrition indicators set in the instrument. Fourier analysis method is used to analyze whether the waveform of the sample is within or deviate from the normal range. According to the waveform analysis results, analysis and judgment are made on the health status and main problems of the examinee.

As the service is free, there is no obligation to purchase the company's products.
